Purpose:

The purpose of this meeting was to update the stakeholders on the status of the RFMP and let stakeholders know what to expect in the next 1-2 months.

Discussion:

Introductions were made by all attendees and a brief presentation was given by Jesse Patchett (PBI).

The new Stakeholder Hotline phone number (209-475-7688) was provided, as well as the Lower San Joaquin and Delta South RFMP webpage (www.sjafca.com/ljdsremf.pmp).

An overview of the proposed Small Group Meetings, and the Draft Small Group Meeting agenda were also presented. During the presentation, action items that stakeholders will be expected to complete and/or information stakeholders will need to bring to the small group meetings was discussed.

Following the presentation, questions were taken from the group. The questions and corresponding responses are included below:

1. Question: What data will the RFMP Team be looking for / expecting stakeholders to provide?
 Response: Previous engineering studies/evaluations; emergency response plans; information on historical flood events; CIP's; O&M issues/challenges, funding issues/challenges, etc. The intent is to provide the background information that we need to include in the RFMP to support recommended projects and inform the Financial Plan.
2. Question: Will the RFMP Team be contacting SJ OES?
 Response: Yes.
3. Question: Do we need to bring information on how we will achieve 200-yr protection to these meetings?
 Response: Yes. Any information stakeholders have on flood management system needs should be provided to the RFMP Team.
4. Comment: Information on what local agencies need to do to achieve 200-yr protection isn't available and/or the studies haven't been done.
 We understand stakeholders will have varying degrees of prior studies/analysis etc. We are asking for the best available information.
5. Question: DWR is currently evaluating urban and non-urban levees under the ULE/NULE program, which is intended to provide necessary repairs to provide 200-yr protection. Will the findings from this program be included in the RFMP?
 Response: DWR anticipates the results of the ULE program in Mid-2014, and the NULE program in late 2014. This will likely be too late to fully incorporate into the RFMP. However, we will work with DWR throughout the

MEETING NOTES

RFMP process to collect available information from these programs, and provide recommendations based on the preliminary data, if possible.

- 6. Comment from SJAFCA: A key outcome of the RFMP will be to get input from stakeholders regarding their interest in upgrading their current flood management systems to provide 200-yr flood protection, as well as their willingness to support a Prop. 218 election to fund the local share, enforce encroachment violations, etc.

Action Items:

Consultant Team:

- Continue contacting stakeholders to set up initial small group meetings.
- Respond to questions/input submitted via the hotline

Stakeholders:

- Get involved in the RFMP by attending small group and monthly TAC meeting, submitting existing information to consultant team, track in-kind labor and expenses and provide to SJAFCA
